Discussion Items

The PACEO memorandum to the President, dated July 19, 1969, set forth two problems considered to be first priority for the management of the Executive Branch:

1. The organization of the Executive Office.
2. The recruitment, training, and retention of Executive personnel.

The PACEO will hand deliver their first recommendations on these two questions and spend most of the time discussing them.

Further, the PACEO will report briefly on the progress on two additional priority areas of concern:

1. Social Programs
2. Organized Crime

Finally, the PACEO shall briefly report on their budget situation, and future plans.

Date: August 14, 1969
